

A Z A H A R

REVISTA POÉTICA - N°131

TALLER DE POESÍA-AÑO XXXVI- AGOSTO 2024

AUTOR JOSÉ RAFAEL OROZCO TORRES

 Editada en Conil de la Frontera (España)

CHATTER ABOVE THE GRAVE

Clumsy are hitting lamps
like night moths.

Matured drunks are falling down.
In the amusement park, weird generals
in a little green skirts are making grimaces.

In the middle of a metropolis, the forest burns.

In the shell of whispering lips
you swim in a part of the story.

My heart is beating the rest.

Del libro A dictionary of foreign dreams of PAVOL JANIK -Eslovaquia- Translated Smiljana Piksiades