SUMMER

The sun smashes our windows.
An urgent song reaches us from the street.

On the cellophane sky
steam condenses.

Unconfirmed reports are reproduced about the wind.

The trees are the first to begin to talk about the two of us.

TO YOU

You come from a scent.
A crumpled flower.
I inhale you tangled like smoke.

You inhabit the starry sky and dials of digital watches.

You stupefy me dependably
and faster than light.

My head aches from you and to this moment I mistake you for music.
